

2013 NW TAB Fest
(AKA TAB on a Shoe String)

Joyce M. Jaime
Evergreen Elementary School
900 Franklin
Shelton, WA 98584
360-490-8190

- Friday, June 21 Earlybird dinner for travelers at Joyce's house.
Serious cooks here dwell, so expect good things.
- Saturday, June 22 8:30-9:00 Breakfast – EVG Art Studio
Grandma Lulu's cinnamon rolls, bagels, cream cheese, juice, and coffee
- 9:00-12:00 TAB Share – favorite lessons and presentations; premises and promises of constructivism – how do they inform our work with children?
- 12:00 Lunch
- 1:30-2:30 Kathy Douglas via the magic of Skype
- 3:00-6:00 Challenges and problems – What did you do? How did you solve that?
- 6:00 Dinner – location to be chosen (What sounds good?)

Tech details: Microsoft laptop and Smart Board available in library, with document camera and projector connected to PC desktop available in art studio. Please bring presentations on thumb drives.

Fees: $30– food and beverages
7 WA clock hours will be available; PD certificate will be issued to all attendees

Lodging: Shelton Inn – one block from Evergreen Elementary School
<http://www.sheltoninn.com>
Super 8 - 2943 Northview Cir, Shelton, WA 98584
<http://tinyurl.com/7gk378l>
Our state capitol, Olympia, is 20 miles south of Shelton. Multiple lodging targets are available there.

Among the possibilities for art-related side trips either before or after our visit:

- Olympia (20 miles) Olympia Hands On Children's Museum (new, spiffy, and a large room for our kind of art exploration

- Tacoma (50 miles) Tacoma Art Museum <http://www.tacomaartmuseum.org/>
Museum of Glass <http://museumofglass.org/>
Washington State History Museum <http://www.washingtonhistory.org/wshm/>
- Seattle (80 miles) Scads of ideas – Google is your friend!